

SEEKING WORK IN ONTARIO'S ENVIRONMENT SECTOR

A NEW OSPE BRIDGING COURSE IN FALL 2018!

An Overview Course for Internationally Educated Engineers, Engineering Technologists and Geoscientists

REGISTER ONLINE: www.ospe.on.ca/IEGs

BENEFITS

- Learn about Current Job Trends and Issues in the Environment Sector
- Improve your Workplace Communication Skills
- Increase your Awareness of what Employers look for when Hiring
- Practice Marketing yourself and Communicating your Skills to Potential Employers
- Access to a Virtual Library and Online Resources
- Participate in a Personal Career Coaching Sessions

PARTICIPANTS

- Internationally Educated Graduates in Engineering, Engineering Technology and Geoscience
- Professionals Interested in Working in the Environment Sector
- Canadian Language Benchmark of 7.5 or higher in oral, written, listening in English
- Need to Commit to at least 48 hours of study-both in class and online
- Need Canadian citizen, conventional refugee, landed immigrant status and be eligible to work in Canada

KEY TOPICS

- The Ontario Environment Sector
- Fitting In/Workplace Culture
- Job Searching in the Environment Sector
- Interviewing and Networking
- Tailoring your Résumé to a Job Posting
- Career Action Plan Development

Funded by  Ontario

BEHIND EVERY GREAT ENGINEER.

2018 COURSE START DATES: Classes are Tuesday & Thursday Afternoons for 6 Weeks

TORONTO (Course Code, EV100 TO): Tues. Sept. 11 to Thurs. Oct. 18, 2018

LONDON (Course Code, EV100 LO): Tues. Sept. 11 to Thurs. Oct. 18, 2018

MISSISSAUGA (Course Code, EV100 MIS): Tues. Oct. 30 to Thurs. Dec. 6, 2018

For further information, please contact Project Manager at jwright@ospe.on.ca